GEOLOGISTICS AMERICAS, INC. d/b/a "Agility",
Defendant. :

Answer to Complaint

Sutton Apparel Group, Ltd. ("SAG") Answers the Complaint, through its attorney, as follows:

Jurisdiction and Venue

1) Defendant SAG admits paragraphs 1 to 6.

Count I

2) SAG admits paragraph 7.

3) SAG denies paragraphs 8 to 11.

Count II

4) SAG denies paragraphs 12 and 13.

Count III

5) SAG denies paragraphs 14 and 15.

Count IV

6) SAG denies paragraphs 16 and 17.

Affirmative Defenses

7) The amount of the invoices do not add up to $188,902 as claimed by Plaintiff. They add up to $110,036, and include the following amounts: $26,112; $28,800; $37,854, and $17,270.

8) The merchandise on Invoice Nos. 786/2697/2007 (in the amount of $26,112) and 786/2724/2007 (in the amount of $28,800) were defective and irregulars, and SAG notified Plaintiff of this.

9) The shipments on Invoice Nos. 786/2851/2007 and 786/2992/2007 in the amount of $37,854 and $17,270 were late and cancelled by SAG, which is supported by emails sent by SAG to Plaintiff.

10) SAG received back merchandise from its retail customers because the goods were late and/or defective, so that SAG was not paid for the merchandise.

Wherefore, the Complaint should be dismissed, and defendant SAG should be awarded its costs and legal fees, and all other relief the Court may deem fair and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

EZRA SUTTON

Attorney for Sutton Apparel Group, Ltd.
